INDEX OF AUTHORS.

PAGE

Abbie, A. A.
The clinical significance of the anterior choroidal artery 233

Antonovitch, S., and Golla, F.
The rate of conduction and refractory period of the human sensory neurone ... 71

Barrington, F. J. F.
The localization of the paths subserving micturition in the spinal cord of the cat... 126

Blair, D. M., and McDowall, R. J. S.
On a cortical flexor tone in the fore-limb of the cat, with observations on the hemiplegic attitude in man 99

Boggon, R. H., and Clark, W. E. Le Gros.
On the connections of the medial cell groups of the thalamus 83

Bucy, P. C., and Fulton, J. F.
Ipsilateral representation in the motor and premotor cortex of monkeys 318

Carmichael, E. A., and Woollard, H. H.
Some observations on the fifth and seventh cranial nerves 109

Carmichael, E. A., and Woollard, H. H.
The testis and referred pain 293

Clark, W. E. Le Gros, and Boggon, R. H.
On the connections of the medial cell groups of the thalamus 83

Denny-Brown, D., and Robertson, E. Graeme.
On the physiology of micturition 149

Denny-Brown, D., and Robertson, E. Graeme.
State of the bladder and its sphincters in complete transverse lesions of the spinal cord and cauda equina 397

Foerster, O.
The dermatomes in man 1

PAGE

Fulton, J. F., and Bucy, P. C.
Ipsilateral representation in the motor and premotor cortex of monkeys 318

Fulton, J. F., and Kennard, M. A.
The localizing significance of spasticity, reflex grasping and the signs of Babinski and Rossolimo 213

Gaylor, J. B., and Wishart, G. M.
The metabolic cost of sustained postures in normal and catatonic subjects ... 282

Golla, F., and Antonovitch, S.
The rate of conduction and refractory period of the human sensory neurone ... 71

Greenfield, J. G., and Robertson, E. Graeme.
Cystic oligodendrogliomas of the cerebral hemispheres and ventricular oligodendrogliomas 217

Holmes, G.
Observations on the paralysed bladder 383

Kahr, S., and Sheehan, D.
The presence of efferent fibres in posterior spinal roots 265

Kennard, M. A., and Fulton, J. F.
The localizing significance of spasticity, reflex grasping and the signs of Babinski and Rossolimo 213

Kernohan, J. W., and Parker, H. L.
Parenchymatous cortical cerebellar atrophy (chronic atrophy of Purkinje's cells)... 191

Kolb, L. C., and Langworthy, O. R.
The encephalic control of tone in the musculature of the urinary bladder ... 371

Langworthy, O. R., and Kolb, L. C.
The encephalic control of tone in the musculature of the urinary bladder ... 371

McDowall, R. J. S., and Blair, D. M.
On a cortical flexor tone in the fore-limb of the cat, with observations on the hemiplegic attitude in man 99

Parker, H. L., and Kernohan, J. W.
Parenchymatous cortical cerebellar atrophy (chronic atrophy of Purkinje's cells) ... 191

Phillips, G.
Perception of flicker in lesions of the visual pathways 464

Robertson, E. Graeme, and Denny-Brown, D.
On the physiology of micturition 149

Robertson, E. Graeme, and Denny-Brown, D.
State of the bladder and its sphincters in complete transverse lesions of the spinal cord and cauda equina 397

Robertson, E. Graeme, and Greenfield, J. G.
Cystic oligodendrogliomas of the cerebral hemispheres and ventricular oligodendrogliomas 217

Robertson, E. Graeme, and Walshe, F. M. R.
Observations upon the form and nature of the "grasping" movements and "tonic innervation" in lesion of the frontal lobe 40

Sheehan, D., and Kahr, S.
The presence of efferent fibres in posterior spinal roots 265

PAGE

Turnbull, F. A.
Syringomyelic complications of spina bifida 304

Walshe, F. M. R., and Robertson, E. Graeme
Observations upon the form and nature of the "grasping" movements and "tonic innervation" in lesion of the frontal lobe 40

Wishart, G. M., and Gaylor, J. B.
The Metabolic cost of sustained postures in normal and catatonic subjects ... 282

Woollard, H. H., and Carmichael, E. A.
Some observations on the fifth and seventh cranial nerves 109

Woollard, H. H., and Carmichael, E. A.
The testis and referred pain 293

Woolsey, C. N.
Postural relations of the frontal and motor cortex of the dog 353

Wulfften Palthe, P. M. v.
Leiodystonia 479

INDEX OF SUBJECTS.

Anterior choroidal artery: the clinical significance of the. A. A. Abbie 233

Bladder: observations on the paralysed. G. Holmes 383

Bladder: state of the, and its sphincters in complete transverse lesions of the spinal cord and cauda equina. D. Denny-Brown and E. Graeme Robertson 397

Bladdder: the encephalic control of tone in the musculature of the urinary. O. R. Langworthy and L. C. Kolb 371

Cerebellar atrophy: parenchymatous cortical. H. L. Parker and J. W. Kernohan ... 191

Conduction: rate of, and refractory period of the human sensory neurone. F. Golla and S. Antonovitch 71

Cortex: ipsilateral representation in the motor and premotor, of monkeys. P. C. Bucy and J. F. Fulton 318

Cortex: Postural relations of the frontal and motor, of the dog. C. N. Woolsey ... 353

Cranial nerves: observations on the fifth and seventh. E. A. Carmichael and H. H. Woollard 109

Dermatomes in man: the. O. Foerster 1

Flicker: perception of, in lesions of the visual pathways. G. Phillips 464

Frontal lobe: observations upon the form and nature of the "grasping" movements and "tonic innervation" in lesion of the. F. M. R. Walshe and E. Graeme Robertson 40

Grasping movements: observations upon the form and nature of the, and "tonic innervation" in lesion of the frontal lobe. F. M. R. Walshe and E. Graeme Robertson 40

Leiodystonia. P. M. v. Wulfften Palthe 479

Micturition: Physiology of. D. Denny-Brown and E. Graeme Robertson ... 149
